

Tahoe Art League
Is Hosting
Plein Air Mornings
May 8th and 22nd

Who: Anyone who wants to get outside, create art and share with good times with other art enthusiasts is invited. You do not need to be a member of TAL.

What: Be prepared to make interesting art, any media, bring your field art supplies, a chair, hat and/or sun umbrella. Also, bring a sack lunch, and stay to share lunch and your endeavors with the group between 11:30- 12:30. Remember weather can be changeable, so dress according and bring sunscreen, bug repellent and water.

When/Where: Meet at the following locations between 8:00am-12:30 pm

- ❖ Saturday May 8th we will be meeting at the Rabe Meadow Parking Lot just off the intersection of Highway 50 and Kahlie Drive. This lovely meadow has a pond, a creek, aspen trees, and plenty of picturesque rocks (just not much shade for the artist).

From the TAL Art Center Gallery in South Lake Tahoe:

- Take Highway 50, north of the Stateline Casino area and past the NV 207 turn off.
- Just past the Lakeview Casino at the next light is Kahlie Drive. Turn left, the parking area is on your right.
- To find on Google Maps use "Lam Watah Interpretive Trail"

❖ Saturday May 22th we will be meeting at the end of Christmas Valley, off of South Upper Truckee Road.

This lovely meadow has nice views of the Truckee River, forest and mountains.

From the TAL Art Center Gallery in South Lake Tahoe:

- Take Highway 50, west beyond Meyers and past the US 89/Luther Pass turnoff (the roundabout).
- Take the second left past the roundabout - South Upper Truckee Road.
- Drive approximately 3.8 miles and park near the bridge crossing the Truckee River, or in the trailhead parking area, over the bridge and on the left.
- To find on Google Maps use "Christmas Valley Trailhead"

Why: From 2003-2017 TAL had a group of plein air enthusiasts who met every weekend on Sunday during summer at different locations to enjoy painting (all mediums), sketching, taking photographs, or whatever. People have asked to restart this type of group. So we are trying to get this activity going again...

For More Information and/or Maps Contact: Group leader: Jill Miller-Allert: (530) 318-8700 (text ok) or QuailRunArt@gmail.com. Please text or email if you might be coming or if you are interested in this type of activity in the future.

✚ While this is an outdoor activity, we ask that you also bring a face mask and try to practice social distancing whenever possible, just in case.
